From the CO's Desk,

Once again it's time for me to tell everyone that the state of the chapter is great. We have the RC election going on, and the IC gaming room prep in adequate motion. Our sponsored Battleship the Texas is doing well on their shakedown, and is underway to getting early commission as well. All seems to be going according to plan.

I really don't have much to speak about, except to say I am still researching the Bowling shirt idea, and will have something more definitive by the next crew meeting. So you may be seeing images of a shirt in the next ITR, we'll see...

It's going to be a busy time for us in the coming summer, I believe we have opportunities to get involved with on every weekend thru the rest of spring, so keep your eyes on the crew calendar on arkangelstation.com to be sure you don't miss out!

Commanding Officer Ark Angel Station,

FCAPT Lloyd Bates

From the Comm Station,

Greetings and Salutations,

Theme for next month's newsletter is "what would be your favorite sci-fi show if Star Trek did not exist and why".

I had fun at the Texas Lottery Star Trek event to launch a new Star Trek scratch-off ticket in Dallas. We fell a bit short of breaking the Guinness Book of World Records for "the most people in Star Trek costumes at one event" the record is still 1,063 (we managed 561).

Operational Thoughts,

March Ark Angel Station Day—Meeting:

The Ark Angel Station Members met on Saturday, March 23 at 12:30 p.m. (we were a bit late) at John Halliday's house. John was very gracious and provided some delicious pigs in a blanket and cheese cubes on sticks among other chips and snacks.

Bowling Night Out:

Another fun night of bowling was Monday, March 25, 2013 at the Dart Bowl. We met first in the Cafe and some of tried their famous enchiladas. I thought they were very delicious. Then we bowled our 2 games. Kathy had a high score of 100 in her second game and she met her goal of not having more than 7 zero frames. Matt and I tied in the first game with 119. The second game, the men, John, Matt, and Lloyd were in a heated 3-way battle for first. Our CO ended up victorious. I forget their scores though, I think high was 134.

April's Ark Angel Station Day—During Third Brigade Muster in Austin:

The Ark Angel Station Members will meet on Saturday, April 27 at 3:00 p.m. at the Sleep Inn & Suites. Anyone may attend the Muster, which lasts all day, then at 3 is our “panel” time. We will allow the other members to join us and see how we do things, as well as the Ark Angel's 323rd MSG will have something to say. If you wish to attend the Muster, festivities begin Friday night, April 26 with a party to celebrate the Battle Born's anniversary. That will be in Jeremy Carsten's room at the hotel. Registration for $10 at the door begins around 8:00 a.m. with opening ceremonies at 9:00 a.m. Various panels and demonstrations will happen throughout the day, then awards will be presented after dinner at Opal Divine's Marina. Party at the hotel after that and into the wee hours, I'm sure. Right now there is a Facebook page where some of the details are: <https://www.facebook.com/events/473753786015613/>; however, you may need to join the 3rd Brigade group to see it. Of course, since this is our meeting time, too, we will keep you informed of any particulars.

Camping Trip Planned:

Because both April and May were pretty much booked some way or other for most, the only free weekend for a camping trip was Mother's Day weekend. So, come on out and enjoy the outdoors. Since we may be camping with some members of Zone 4 from San Antonio, we're looking for campgrounds between here and there. We may be trying Potter Creek Park on the north side of Canyon Lake. I just hope there's rain between now and then.

Register for STARFLEET's International Conference 2013:

Don't forget to sign up for IC 2013 and make your hotel reservations, and you now have the opportunity to pre-order IC 2013 Challenge Coins for only $10. The Conference will be in Dallas, Texas, at the MCM Elegaté Hotel off of Northwest Highway and I-35. Our latest spawning chapter the USS Texas is hoping to commission at IC. We have invited a guest to assist with the commissioning ceremony or at the very least, some partying to celebrate. There are many things planned and more details can be found on the website at: www.ic2013.com.

All Ark Angel Station Days—Meeting:

The Ark Angel Station Members will meet most every 4th Saturday of the Month. Don't forget to check your email for details (because that's more private) and check the many calendars we have:

Cadet Services Report,

Spring has been fairly busy for the cadets; Cadets Claire & Aiden have been active in taekwondo, and Cadet Mandi has been busy with barrel racing. All the cadets have been busy in school, with Cadet Mandi making the A/B honor roll, and they're all getting antsy for school to let out for the summer. The Cadet Corps postponed their March Away Mission until March 30 so that we wouldn't have to deal with SXSW traffic, and we have another Training Mission scheduled for April 20 at LTJG Deanna's home in Georgetown.

With baseball season starting up in the next couple weeks, we'd like to remind everyone about the Junior Sluggers program at Dell Diamond for the Round Rock Express. For $15, your child will receive a Junior Sluggers T-shirt, lawn seat tickets for every Sunday home game, 4 vouchers for weekday games, 20% off at the Rail yard, 5 vouchers for Spike's Fun Zone, 20% off all Express camps, a $10 coupon for a youth account at A+ Federal Credit Union, and access to members only events.

That's a great deal for a whole summer of fun, and the Cadet Corps has several trips to Dell Diamond planned for this summer, starting with May 5th's Away Mission.

Here's a quick rundown of what the Cadet Corp has planned for the year so far:

April 20-Training Mission-Underdog

May 5-Away Mission-Round Rock Express/Dell Diamond

June 8-Training Mission-The Adams Family

July 5-Away Mission-Round Rock Express/Dell Diamond

November 2-3-Special Ops Mission-Extra Life

You can get more information on the Ark Angel Cadet Corps at our website

Reed Bates,

I'm really not sure I have a favorite character. I really love many of them, the regulars and many of the guests or recurring characters. It might be easier to pick one of your least favorites, but that's a topic for another day. So, I have to pick one...I'll pick my favorite Captain...Captain Kathryn Janeway played by Kate Mulgrew. Now, I have another favorite Captain of the men, that of Captain Jonathan Archer, but that's for an all too different reason. But, Kathryn Janeway is my favorite of all the ST Captains. She was a very complex, strong woman, yet there were times when they let her more feminine, softer side show. She was well-rounded because of that. Last year, in April 2012's Inside the Rock, I wrote about two of my favorite episodes of Voyager era. Both of them were Janeway episodes. The softer side loved Janeway in Resolutions Stardate: 49690.1 (ST:VOY Season 2, Esp. 25, Air date: May 13, 1996) and the tougher side loved her in Year of Hell (ST:VOY Season 4, Esp. 8 & 9 (2 Parts), Air dates: November 5, 1997 and November 12, 1997). I very much identify with her nowadays because her position with her crew is similar to mine within the Region. There are times to be friends and there are times when the work needs to be done. Luckily, in the Region, my decisions aren't life or death. I get to be a bit more relaxed than Janeway.

Hand Over The Coffee

And no one gets hurt
