From the CO's Desk,

Well I have missed submitting a few of these, my apologies to the crew. I'll endeavor to be timelier in getting words out to you all in the future.

With that said, the fall is coming upon us, and it's time to start thinking about activities outdoors again! It has been suggested we do a winter camping trip, please let the ops team know what you think about that, it'll be new business at our next meeting. Also, we have regional Game Day coming up, it'll be hosted at John Halliday's house, and if I'm not mistaken will be coordinating the 24hr gaming lockdown with our cadet corps "Extra Life" Check out this link as it has lots of good info about the organization, and it has the place to join and/or submit donations for the Ark Angel Cadet Corps Team!

We recently finished IC2013 and what a great time that turned out to be, got to see friends and fleeters I hadn't seen for a few years. We hosted the Game Room, and along with some of the Texas's folks we put on a great Hunger Games role-play, everyone that played (and some that watched), all want to play again. I was told by the Commander Starfleet that we are a victim of our own success in this regard... lol, well I guess that's the way it is, I have already been in contact with the others that ran it with me on changes based on lessons learned and so the next time it'll be even better!

During my time away from the writer's desk we have had a returning member of Starfleet join us! Sam Spradling and her family, after a few years out of fleet, has joined the station's crew. Welcome them aboard.

Well, for now that's all I got, but I think I should also remind the crew you too can send in an article to the commo officer for this newsletter, if you have any announcements of upcoming events, charities, or just want to let everyone know how you're doing, feel free to send those notes to commo for inclusion in the next edition.

Commanding Officer Ark Angel Station,

FCAPT Lloyd Bates

From the Comm Station,

Greetings and Salutations,

Theme for next month's newsletter is "Which Non-Star Trek Sci-Fi TV or Movie character or race would you like to see in Capt Kirk era Star Trek (not the reboot Kirk but TOS Kirk)".

Congratz to Claire and Aiden Bressie on their promotions to Cadet First Class and Cadet Second class respectfully. Congratz to Lt Deanna on her grade of Awarded for Boothby 0200 from the school of SFA Awards.

I'm still in the big sandbox on the other side of the planet, but will be home soon. I hope everyone had a great Trekkie/Whoivan summer.

Cadet Services Report,

It's that time of year again! November 2 marks the second annual special ops mission for the Ark Angel Cadet Corps. Once again, we're participating in Extra-Life to benefit Children's Miracle Network (nationally) and Austin Children's Medical Center (locally). This year's event is going an hour longer than last year's event-25 straight hours of video games for charity! We're also hosting our event in conjunction with Region 3 Game Day-we encourage gamers from all over the region to join us (or form their own team and try to challenge us!) as we play for fun, prizes, and bragging rights. For more information, you can email me at cadetsvcs@arkangelstation.com as well as check out www.extra-life.org.

Last year we were just shy of our $500 goal-this year we plan to pass it by miles!! You can donate to the Ark Angel Cadet Corps on our fundraising page: <http://www.extra-life.org/index.cfm?fuseaction=donorDrive.team&teamID=10492>

You can get more information on the Ark Angel Cadet Corps at our website (<http://arkangelcadetcorps.com>), on Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/arkangelcadetcorps>), or by emailing Cadet Services Officer.

What food or dish would you like to see made with a Star Trek theme

FCAPT Lloyd Bates

What food do I think needs to be done with a Star Trek Flair?

Drum roll please....Twice baked Potatoes!

Potatoes you say; well of course I say! Just think about it...

Luscious fluffy baked potatoes with nice cream and veggies mixed in, for a Vulcan's veggie only style.

Although a good supply of chunked up brisket in BBQ, red onions and sharp cheese, says yuummmy to this CO's tummy for sure!

The spuds could be washed and soaked in food coloring to give the outer shell one color and then could be added to make the innards of it a different color to add that exotic look.

It could even be paired with some exotic fruits as garnishing, or for those that prefer a sweet potato could be used instead.

And because the CO can't just have one, my next secret ingredient is... Ants on a log!

This already starts looking kind of weird right from the gate, and if you mix it up with peanut butter and raisins, cheese and capers(or olives), Nutella and cherries, humus and pimento, and things like that, you can really set out quite a spread of snacks to be sure...

So there are my submissions, I wonder what everyone else will think of.

LTJG Mike Brown

I would like to have Lasagna and cheese cake made with a Star Trek theme. Maybe have the Lasagna made into a shape of a horta. The cheese cake made in the shape of a Enterprise TOS shuttle or DS9 runabout.
